THE SERIES
- This is the second-ever meeting between Delaware and UCF in women's basketball history.
- The two teams previously met on December 9, 2018 at the Bob Carpenter Center. The Knights were victorious by a score of 71-60.
- While the Hens have never faced UCF in Orlando, Delaware did take part in the UCF Thanksgiving Classic in 2013 at what was then called CFE Arena. UD picked up wins over St. John’s (71-42) and Howard (69-44) that weekend.

THE COACHES
- Natasha Adair (South Florida ’94) is in her third season at UD after being named just the fourth women’s basketball coach in the program’s illustrious history on May 14, 2017.
- Now in her eighth season overall, Adair recorded her 100th career victory as a head coach during the 2018-19 campaign.
- Adair is heavily involved with USA Basketball and most recently helped guide Team USA U19 squad to a gold medal at the 2019 FIBA Women’s World Cup in Thailand as an assistant coach.

BLUE HENS ADD TARA COUSINS AND TYI SKINNER FOR 2020-21 CAMPAIGN

Delaware women’s basketball head coach Natasha Adair excitedly announced Friday that Tara Cousins and Tyi Skinner have signed National Letters of Intent to play for the Blue Hens beginning in 2020-21. “We’re excited to welcome both Tara and Tyi into the Blue Hens family. There aren’t enough attributes to discuss the positives that both will bring with them. Kudos to our current players for building the current culture of our program and I know that Tara and Tyi will really complement what we’re doing. I cannot wait to see them in blue and gold, and just to see their impact felt as soon as they get here.”

Cousins, a 5-8 guard from Washington, D.C., averaged 22.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 7.0 assists per game as a junior last season at Woodrow Wilson High School. The 2019 DCIAA Player of the Year, Cousins transferred to New Hope Academy for her senior campaign. NHA is ranked as the top girl’s high school program in the country by USA Today and also produced current Delaware freshman Agnes Paul. A 5-5 guard from Washington, D.C., Skinner transferred to TPLS Christian Academy midway through her junior season where she averaged 25 points per game, 8.0 assists, 6.0 rebounds and 3.0 steals per game.

LAST TIME VS. UCF | SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9, 2018 | BOB CARPENTER CENTER

Playing on their home court for the first time during the 2018-19 season, the Blue Hens came up just short to UCF, 71-60, at the Bob Carpenter Center. Delaware, which fell behind early, was able to cut a 23-point UCF lead to just 10 in the fourth quarter, but unfortunately there was just not enough ticks left on the clock. Abby Gonzales led the Hens (3-6) with 18 points to go along with two assists, two rebounds and one steal while Samone DeFreese contributed 10 points, five rebounds and two steals. Jasmine Dickey added seven points and seven rebounds while Paris McBride collected eight points and four assists. The game was marred by turnovers as both Delaware and UCF (7-11) posted 25 miscues in the contest.

Natasha Adair was selected as just the fourth women’s basketball head coach in the program’s illustrious history on May 14, 2017.

In her first season with the Blue Hens, Adair guided Delaware to its most wins (19) and first postseason appearance since the 2013-14 campaign. Additionally, the Hens captured 10 conference victories for the first time since 2012-13.

Under Adair, the Blue Hens were an offensive threat as Delaware averaged its most points (65.8) since 2012-13. Additionally, the Hens logged 80-plus points in six different contests for the first time in six seasons while logging five straight games of 70-plus points to open the year while UD only reached 70-plus points three times in each of the previous two seasons.

Delaware also saw the fifth player in program history pick up Conference Player of the Year accolades as forward Nicole Enabosi earned the Colonial Athletic Association’s top individual award while also garnering CAA All-First Team and All-Defensive Team honors for the second straight season. Enabosi finished her junior year by overtaking the Blue Hens single-season records in rebounds (375) and double-doubles (23) while her name is littered among the Delaware single-season Top 10 for points, points per game, rebounds per game, blocked shots, field goals made, field goal percentage, free throws made and free throws attempted.

Adair, who has more than 20 years of coaching experience under her belt, has received the national attention of USA Basketball and has served as an assistant coach for the U19 and U18 Women’s National Basketball Teams and has spoken at the USA Basketball Las Vegas Coach Academy. Additionally, Adair served as a U19 Women’s World Cup Team Trials Court Coach during the summer of 2017.

Adair joined the Blue Hens from Georgetown University, where she turned around a four-win Hoyas program to a postseason contender in three seasons as head coach. Behind Adair’s leadership, GU finished 2016-17 with a 17-13 record, the most wins for the Hoyas since 2011-12, and garnered the team’s second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT.

The Silver Spring, Md. native is no stranger to the Colonial Athletic Association as her first head coaching stint took her to the College of Charleston, where she was 35-31 overall. In the Cougars’ first season in the CAA in 2013-14, Adair guided The College to record of 19-15, marking the third-highest win total in the school’s Division I era. Additionally, the squad finished third in conference play, defeated five postseason teams from the previous year and advanced to the semifinals of both the CAA Championship and the Women’s Basketball Invitational.

Adair played collegiately at Pensacola Junior College (1990-92) before playing and graduating from the University of South Florida with a degree in communications in 1994. She previously spent 13 seasons in the assistant coaching ranks, with seven years (2004-12) at Wake Forest University and six seasons (1998-04) at Georgetown University. Her coaching career has seen her develop and mentor 12 players who went on to play at the professional level.

Natasha Adair was selected as just the fourth women’s basketball head coach in the program’s illustrious history on May 14, 2017.

In her first season with the Blue Hens, Adair guided Delaware to its most wins (19) and first postseason appearance since the 2013-14 campaign. Additionally, the Hens captured 10 conference victories for the first time since 2012-13.
